SOME APPLICATIONS OF THE BERGMAN MAPPING

ATSUSHI YAMAMORI

Stefan Bergman defined the Bergman mapping in order to study the classification problem of complex domains. In this talk, we will explain how this mapping is useful in the study of origin-preserving automorphisms of some special domains such as quasi-circular domains and finite-volume Reinhardt domains (possibly unbounded non-hyperbolic).